

Flight Safety Boeing

Long Beach, California

Client: FlightSafety/Boeing

Architect: JR Miller & Associates

Budget: 5.4 million

Size: 43,000 SF

Located adjacent to the Long Beach Airport, this multi-function facility contains classroom training centers and general offices. Interacting with the highly specialized computer control rooms, the building's flight simulators train pilots to fly the fleet of Boeing commercial aircraft.

